

Lake Millstätter See. The Jewel of Carinthia.

Winter Nights Under the Stars

Lake Millstätter See, Winter 2022/23

A "Biwak unter den Sternen. Rifugio sotto le stelle." provides a charming retreat for couples in winter too. To be found at different locations, the bivouacs offer unforgettable nights of stargazing to suit every taste.

It doesn't take much to be happy: a bed that fills the room, a table, two chairs, warm fur blankets and time to count the stars. These moments of happiness can be found at "Biwak unter den Sternen. Rifugio sotto le stelle." sites around Lake Millstätter See. They are elegant little hideaways embedded in nature, built from local stone pine or larch wood. Large panoramic windows offer far-reaching views of the lake and mountains. The message of these secret retreats: celebrate time together.

In winter, when dancing snowflakes put the earth to rest, the bivouacs under the stars have a particular charm. Three of the seven bivouacs are bookable this winter season.

TIME FOR TWO ON THE MOUNTAIN

Biwak Himmel (Bivouac Heaven) | cielo

Bivouac Heaven invites you to conquer the mountain world by snowshoeing, skiing or ski touring and to listen to the silence of winter.

The Sports Mountain Goldeck lifts have finished their duties for the day, the campfire crackles and the starlit sky shows itself from its most beautiful side: clear, unadulterated and within reach. You can track the lights of the town down in the valley, but up here on the mountain everything is calm. The fire warms your hands, your touring skis firmly secured in deep snow. You look towards the summit of the Goldeck: serpentine by serpentine you made your way up, then turn by turn back down in the powder snow with one goal in mind: Bivouac Heaven! Now it's time to celebrate and capture the moment. And tomorrow a delightful day of skiing on 25 km of perfectly groomed slopes awaits...

TIME FOR TWO BY THE LAKE

Biwak Sonnenuntergang (Bivouac Sunset) | tramonto

Biwak Garten (Bivouac Garden) | giardino

The bivouacs "Sunset" and "Garden" invite you to enjoy the winter landscape around Lake Millstätter See. Wellness and first-class cuisine included.

The fire crackles. Wrapped in fur blankets you feel wonderfully warm – right in the middle of winter. The landscape around Lake Millstätter See is gently bedded in cotton wool. A "Biwak unter den Sternen" provides space for laughter and storytelling, for which there is often no time in everyday life. Consciously spending time together; that's what makes this such a memorable break. Hiking through the crunchy snow, strolling along the lakeside promenades or visiting the shopping town of Spittal brings the magic of winter back to life. The tables are set for dinner in the hotel restaurant, leaving just enough time for a revitalising sauna infusion at the hotel spa.

Tip: A visit to "1. Kärnten Badehaus" (Carinthia's first bathhouse) will get this short break off to a relaxing start before you have even arrived at the bivouac.
